

HENRY E. YOUTSEY IS FOUND GUILTY

He Was Sentenced to Life Imprisonment This Morning.

PRISONER WAS RAVING

The Verdict Will Confront the Court with an Unprecedented Situation.

SORROWFUL SCENE IN COURT

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 20.—Henry E. Youtsey was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment this morning. The court room was crowded but none of Youtsey's attorneys were present. The prisoner's aged father and a number of relatives were in the sick room just off the court room. The verdict produced a tearful scene as they had hoped for acquittal. Youtsey was somewhat better this morning but still unable to make himself understood. A new trial will be asked for and failing in that an appeal will be taken.

Jury Wanted More Time.
The jury which decided that Henry Youtsey aided in the killing of William Goebel told Judge Cantrill at 9 o'clock last night that they preferred to postpone the consideration of evidence until this morning. At the judge's suggestion they took the necessary papers and discussed the case at their boarding house during the night.

Youtsey suffered from another outbreak last night after the judge sent the jury to its quarters. He jumped from the cot grabbed a chair and smashed it against the wall. A guard overpowered him and placed him back upon the cot where he lay gasping and exhausted.

Youtsey's Body Was Present.
Colonel Nelson was not in the court last night when the jury received its brief final advice from Judge Cantrill. But Youtsey was there—at least the semblance of him was present. The door of the room which had lodged him was thrown open, and the light streaming out showed a face framed in white coverlets. The eyes were closed.

The wife sat by one side of the cot, a white uniformed nurse by the other. Mr. Youtsey, the gray-bearded father sat inside the rail, a few yards from the doorway. The wife and the father listened intently when the judge told the jury how its duties should be performed, and then they scanned the faces of the jurymen.

Sphinx-Like Faces.
Impassive sphinx-like faces they were, for these twelve men are bowed and sobered beyond the ordinary by the weight of their responsibility. Jurymen have often tried men charged with murder. But never has one tried the earthy shell of a man under weight of judicial instructions which forbid that they should take cognizance of the physical condition of the accused.

Such, say the attorneys, is the effect of the ruling which ordered the trial continued, though no mention of Youtsey's physical state was made in Judge Cantrill's formal instructions. Nor did the jurymen look toward the lighted door, and their stoicism was judged as a bad sign.

POPE SAYS HE TRUSTS AMERICA

Church in Cuba and the Philippines is Well Cared For—He Sends Thanks to McKinley.

New York, Oct. 20.—Archbishop Ireland, in conversation today touching the sentiment at Rome towards the Roman Catholic church in the Philippines and in Cuba, remarked that he felt quite willing to repeat what was recently said in Rome on this subject. The archbishop said: "In one of the audiences the Pope said, 'We are well pleased with the relations of the American government to the church in Cuba and the Philippines islands. The American government gives proof of good will and exhibits in its acts a spirit of justice and of respect for the liberty and rights of the church. The reports we receive from bishops and others indicate this.' "Difficulties of detail occur as a consequence of war and of newness of complexions. But we understand such things. We have confidence in the intelligence and the spirit of justice of the American government, there will be due respect for rights of property and of conscience. You will thank in my name the president of the republic for what is being done."

John Sherman Still Ill.
Washington, Oct. 20.—There was no appreciable change in Sherman's condition during the night.

THREE SHIPS MAY BE LOST.

Vessel That Sailed from Australia May 13 Not Heard From.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 20.—The failure of the City of Pekin to report the ship Wachusett, coal-laden from Newcastle, Australia, for Kahului, in Hawaii, has caused reinsurance on that long overdue vessel to rise from 20 to 90 per cent. There are twenty-eight men on the Wachusett, which sailed from Newcastle on May 13. The ship Yosemite left the same port eight days later and reached Kahului Aug. 10. On Oct. 10, two months later, the Wachusett had not reached Kahului. Ninety per cent reinsurance is also offered on the British iron bark Lismache, in ballast from Callao to Toconilla. She is out ninety-four days, when the voyage should have been made in thirty-five or forty days at the outside.

There is much speculation, too, on the Alex McNeil, which left Port Blakely, Puget sound, on May 3 for Fremantle, on the west coast of Australia, and which has not been reported. Fifty per cent is offered on her.

Mr. Stevenson Is at Utica.
Utica, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Adlai E. Stevenson arrived here shortly after noon from Lowell, where he spoke last night. He expressed himself as highly gratified with the meeting in Lewis county and said it augured well when 1,500 men came out to hear a speech in a small town on a cold fall night.

SUIT TO TEST THE BADGER GAME LAW

Douglass Dyrenforth of Chicago to Contest Seizure of Fish by Game Warden Zinn.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—Douglas Dyrenforth of Chicago recently caught two huge muskellunge at Tucker Lake, Price county, and according to a complaint filed in the federal court today he valued the fish at $5,000. He says there were only twenty pounds of fish. Mr. Dyrenforth did not get his fish out of the state; they were seized by Deputy Game Warden Zinn and sold.

Mr. Dyrenforth claims the seizure was illegal, and he has brought suit in the federal court to recover from Mr. Zinn what he claims the fish were worth to him. He claims he was going to preserve the fish as mementoes and that they were valuable to him. He sets up the claim that there is a sentimental value to fish caught as he secured these.

He claims that the seizure was illegal as he was only taking out of the state what the law allows him to carry away.

If the court upholds the game warden in the seizure, then an action will be brought raising the question of the constitutionality of the Wisconsin game law. The case is of great interest to fishermen and hunters from outside Wisconsin who come here for their favorite sport.

MACVEAGH IS OUT FOR MR. M'KINLEY

Chicago Business Man Insists That Free Silver is the Leading Issue in This Campaign.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Frank MacVeagh not only intends to vote for William McKinley but will do all he can to bring about the president's election. In a communication addressed to Vice Chairman Henry C. Payne of the republican national committee he gives his reasons for supporting the republican standard bearer. Mr. MacVeagh is a sound money democrat, and six years ago was the candidate of his party for United States Senator.

In the opening sentence of his letter Mr. MacVeagh says: "Free silver at 16 to 1 is the issue of this campaign, all devices of a paramount issue to the contrary notwithstanding." He follows this declaration with another to the effect that "the dangers of 1896 are still at our doors, and will be as long as Mr. Bryan is a candidate, or a possible candidate."

He devotes the major portion of his statement to Bryanism, and asserts that "the greater number of Bryan gold democrats do not wish Mr. Bryan elected," and accuses them of simply wanting to be in line for places of influence in a regenerated party.

Mr. MacVeagh says that the Philippine question can wait, and that the good work of saving this country from Bryanism must first be completed.

PLAN STRIKE OF 260,000 MINERS

Anthracite Leaders Hope to Project a Gigantic Labor Union.

WANT A SIX HOUR DAY

This and Other Demands Will Be Made in All Mines Next Spring.

ALL COAL MINERS IN DEAL

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 20.—Within the last forty-eight hours the leaders of the anthracite coal strike have perfected plans which may cause a strike in every coal field in the United States next May. T. D. Ryan of Illinois and President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America have laid the plans. It is proposed that both hard and soft coal miners shall band together and present their demands to the mine owners at the same time. They are to stand or fall together. No union miner is to go to work until the demands of all are settled. The Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia fields are involved. In round numbers the leaders are expecting to have back of them 260,000 men.

Soft Coal Men in It.
The plan was first discussed at Scranton last week. Mr. Ryan was there as the bearer of promises of support from the Illinois miners. With President Mitchell he at once set about perfecting the plan. The soft coal men are now working under an agreement that expires on April 30, 1901. It was decided that the anthracite miners should demand only six months' agreement with the operators, that they might be free to act in concert with the men in the Western field. Consequently the arrangements were read only until April 1 next.

All to Demand Better Contracts.
When all the contracts have expired the plan is to formulate demands representing the men in every field. This may be done either by a joint committee or in general convention. This done, the stipulations of the men are to be presented to all the operators. "Then," a miner said today, "it will be up to the bosses. We are not talking a universal strike but we will stand together. It will be a common cause, and its purpose will be a betterment of mine workers in every field."

One demand the miners expect to make is for a six-hour day. What else they will ask is known only to the leaders, and they are not talking.

DRESSMAKERS GO ON A STRIKE.

Minneapolis Shops Affected by a Walkout of their Employees.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 20.—Minneapolis is experiencing a novelty in the way of strikes, about 250 dressmakers having quit work this week, complaining of long hours. They have organized a union and are being backed by all the labor organizations of the city, while public sentiment seems to be generally with them. All of the leading shops are affected, with the exception of the nine that signed the agreement presented by the strikers. The girls do not ask for more pay but shorter hours. They have been working from 7:30 o'clock in the morning until six at night and any overtime that was necessary to get the work out. Now they want their hours fixed from seven to six and pay and a half for over time.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR MR. M'KINLEY

No Doubt of His Election by an Increased Majority.

ALL SORTS OF CLAIMS

Field of War to Be in the States of New York and Indiana.

TOUR OF THE SPELLBINDERS

Chicago, Oct. 20.—In two weeks more the people will give a decision on the issues of the present campaign. The result is clouded by all sorts of claims, but there seems to be no reason to doubt that McKinley will be elected by an increased vote over four years ago.

Both Claim New York.

Both parties assert with great positiveness that they will carry New York, but the republicans talk a little louder than their opponents and offer to wager their money with a little greater freedom. Until the registration is completed in the large cities of the state today—so far unprecedentedly large everywhere—party managers will not be able to give definite figures of their expectations. Chairman Odell claims in round figures that McKinley's plurality will be 100,000, while the democratic leaders indicate that they will be content with 20,000 or 30,000.

Indiana a Close State.

Indiana is and will remain in a maze of doubt until the votes are cast and counted. There are many elements of doubt which puzzle both parties, the most of which are the mining and farmer vote. The old parties both claim an advantage here, and Mr. DeB's friends claim he will get a surprisingly heavy vote from organized labor, especially in Indianapolis and in northern Indiana.

Roosevelt in Washington.

Kansans Cheer for Hanna.

Pawnee, Neb., Oct. 20.—Hanna continued his anti-Bryan speeches today beginning at Wymore where the excursionists from Kansas points heard him ask what Bryan had ever done for the working man and receive nothing as a reply from somebody in the audience. "Confidentially now," Hanna said, leaning over the railing, "not a d—m thing" whereat the Kansans yelled.

FLAX SEED REACHES TOP QUOTATIONS

Highest Price on Record Paid for the Product in Chicago—Brings $1.85 Per Bushel.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—The highest price on record for flaxseed was reached yesterday. The top quotation was $1.85 a bushel. The estimated crop for 1900 is 18,000,000 bushels, which means the farmers of Kansas, Minnesota and the Dakotas have made a net profit of $6,480,000 this month on their flaxseed. This constitutes an increase of $12,780,000 over a similar quantity if sold at rates in vogue a year ago.

The powwow is held in celebration of the end of a successful cranberry season, and other events known only to those who participated in it. For several days many Indians have passed through this city on their way from Iowa, Nebraska, the Dakotas and other western states, to attend the dance.

MR. HANNA SPEAKS AT BRYAN'S HOME

Boldly Denounces the Silver Leader as an Arrogant Falsifier.

CROWDS CHEER ATTACK

National Republican Chairman Grows Indignant While Defending M'Kinley.

MAKES FRIENDS IN NEBRASKA

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 20.—Senator Hanna told the neighbors of William J. Bryan exactly what he thought of him last evening. He came to Bryan's own state and city for that express purpose, and did not mince his words in the doing of it. He said he wished to say what he had to say of Mr. Bryan "before an audience in his own home," and then spoke of him in a way that he had never spoken before. He accused Mr. Bryan of deliberate falsehood; he denounced him as a demagogue, and the 2,500 residents of the City of Lincoln who filled the opera-house in which he was talking applauded the speaker to the echo.

Senator Hanna had made a speech much after the same kind he had been delivering throughout Nebraska during the day. He had referred to Bryan several times as "Your distinguished fellow citizen," and seemed almost ready to quit. Suddenly he walked to the front of the platform, and said:

Charges Bryan With Falsehood.

"I want to beg the pardon of my audience for making a personal reference to your distinguished fellow citizen. I am simply, however, returning the compliment. Mr. Bryan has visited Ohio and given me hail Columbia from one end to the other. There were cries of 'That's all right,' and 'Go ahead' at this, and then the senator read that part of Mr. Bryan's speech of Salem, Ill., in which he accused 'the managers of the republican party of planning to win the election by bribery and fraud.' 'I am the head of those managers, so I must take this to myself,' said Senator Hanna, and then, straightening himself up and clinching his fist, he continued:

"Before an audience in his own town I want to hurl that statement back in Mr. Bryan's teeth and brand it false as hell. The man who made it I want to denounce as a demagogue in his own home."

For an instant the audience was quiet and then it broke forth in wild applause. Cries of "hit him again; go on; land him one more" were heard all over the house. But after the cheering had subsided Senator Hanna said a few words regarding his connection with organized labor, and sat down.

Big Demonstration in Lincoln.

Senator Hanna was the cause of the greatest political demonstration the City of Lincoln ever knew last evening. He was escorted to the hotel by a large procession of which 200 young girls in a marching club uniform were an attractive feature. He was hardly given time to eat so closely was he besieged and in the evening the streets of Lincoln were crowded as they never were before.

A torch light procession of 5,000 escorted Senator Hanna to the Opera House, where he spoke first, and between 20,000 and 30,000 spectators cheered from the sidewalks. Twenty-five hundred people crowded into the opera house which was only built to seat eighteen hundred and in the auditorium, where the second meeting was held, there were 5,000 more. Easily ten thousand clamored for admittance.

BAN IS PUT ON THE COUPON PLAN

FAKE ARTISTS WHO GIVE VALUABLES AWAY FREE

The United States Postoffice Department Has Investigated and Decided That the Use of the Mails for Their Purpose is Illegal in Every Way.

The noted coupon schemes which have been springing up everywhere received a blow in the solar plexus from the national postal authorities, it being decided in Washington that the promoters of these more or less questionable enterprises will have to worry along without using the United States mails. It is said that the nuisance of the order to that effect by the department will very likely result in the driving most of these concerns dependent upon the mails for circulating their literature and coupons.

Not only are these coupons and the literature of these companies barred from the mails, but the advertisements of all such concerns are also shut out. This will, of course, make it incumbent upon all papers and periodicals sent by mail to refuse all coupon advertisements.

The fascinating advertisements which appeared in some of the papers captured the attention of a number. It is inevitable that the large number of those who respond to these advertisements lose through the scheme. A book of coupons is sold to a purchaser, who sells each one of the coupons to a friend or some one else who wants to take a hand in the chain. The second purchaser takes or sends the coupon he has bought to the office of the concern, together with the stated purchase price for a full book of coupons. When each one of the coupons sold to the first purchaser had thus been returned then he received the article advertised. The second purchaser of a book of coupons was supposed to go ahead just as the first man had done and dispose of his coupons. Thus each new man who took a hand started up as many new customers as there were coupons in the book.

One of the best known coupon schemes was that which claimed to let its chain participants have a silk skirt or waist for the small sum of 20 cents. Twenty cents was the small sum a customer paid to some one for a coupon. This coupon was to be sent together with $1 to the company, who gave for the same one full book of coupons. The purchaser was supposed to take these coupons and sell them for twenty-five cents each. When he had sold them all he was of course, only out the twenty cents of his original investment. After the purchasers of these coupons, all of them, had sent the coupons, accompanied by the dollars, to the company for more books of coupons, then the man or woman who sold the coupons received the silk skirt—at least the advertisement said he would receive it, and it is said that many have obtained goods just as advertised. The concern stated in so many words to its customers that for each silk skirt sent out they had first received the $5 from the purchasers of books of coupons. This is quite plain that such a chain could not be carried on indefinitely, and ultimately people would expend money on which they would receive no returns.

CAMPAIGN STORY ON H. A. COOPER

How He Got Back At a Man Who Interrupted a Speech of His At Beloit.

A writer in the Chicago Tribune in telling some political stories relates the following:

"Perhaps you know Congressman Cooper of the Racine, Wis., district. For a good many years his hair has not been exactly luxuriant. In fact, people have been heard to remark that he is bald headed. Ten years ago—two years before he went to Congress—he was stumping the district. He is a big, fine looking fellow and a good stump speaker. In that district a good many meetings were held in the open air, where the sun had a good chance to shine on Cooper's bald head.

On one occasion a rough in the crowd about the speaker's stand yelled out some disrespectful allusion to that prominent feature of Cooper's personal appearance, and for a minute he was terribly embarrassed. Finally he made some retort or other and finished up the meeting as best he could. But he was too good a campaigner ever to let it happen again. As I've been told the story, he took the best way in the world to prevent it. I heard him make a speech at Beloit a few days afterwards, and I'll tell you what happened there.

"There is a sort of public square in Beloit, at one corner of which stands the principal hotel in the town. At that corner the speaker's stand had been built. The meeting was held late in the afternoon, and the square was packed with people. The chairman had made his opening address and had introduced Cooper to the crowd. He started at once into a rattling campaign speech.

"My friends," he was saying at the top of his voice, "the tariff is the foundation of our national prosperity. If we take the duty off—"

"Just then there came a wild shout from somewhere far out in the crowd of 5000 people.

"Gaw you bald-headed old sinner!" somebody yelled in a high-pitched voice.

"Cooper stopped as if he had been shot. For an instant dead silence prevailed in the big crowd, which before had been moving about more or less as all out-of-door crowds do. Then Cooper answered, lowering his voice from the high oratorical pitch to a conversational tone.

"My friend," he said, "you allude to my bald head. I beg to remind you that the most luxuriant vegetation grows out of the rankest muck heaps. If you want to find the pure and virgin gold you must go to the bald and shining peaks of the Sierras."

"You can imagine what happened. The crowd simply went wild. They gave three cheers for Cooper, told him he was all right half a dozen times in chorus, and gave the closest possible attention to the remainder of his speech. As for the man who had interrupted, he slunk away in the crowd and nobody was ever able to identify him. And it anybody else had been speaker further that retort was enough to make him keep quiet.

"I heard afterwards that somebody was foolish enough to call Cooper 'a bald-headed old sinner' in every town he visited that campaign, and on every occasion the same retort settled his case. Of course, I don't know what it cost to hire a man to do the interrupting, but you'll all admit that it was a pretty good scheme as campaign schemes go."

DEMOCRATS WON THE GOLF MATCH

The democrats are sure that Bryan will be elected. They settled that to their entire satisfaction on the links of the Mississippi Golf club yesterday afternoon. The republicans were confident that the democrats would not have a ghost of a show and were willing to play for any old prize that the democrats would put up.

When the two forces lined up at the house yesterday afternoon it was found that the democrats as usual were in the minority, but one democrat is equal to two republicans (at golf) and in order to even things up J. P. Baker played against the best ball of George Brownell and Arthur J. Harris and defeated them two up. Fred Baker, won from the best ball of Ross King and John G. Rexford 5 up. Mark Bestwick defeated Capt. Charles F. Achterberg 5 up which made a total of 13 points for the democrats.

crats. The republican winners were Albert Schaller, who defeated his brother Charles, 5 up. Stanley Tallman defeated C. C. MacLean 1 up and Leo Brownell defeated Harry Kirkland 5 up, a total of 11 points, leaving the democrats the winners by 2 points.

A number of the best players on the republican team were out of town which handicapped them badly. They are satisfied that with a full team on both sides the democrats would not be in it.

BELOIT FAIR IS AN ASSURED FACT

Site Selected and Committees Appointed—Will Be Known as the Beloit Inter-State Fair.

An enthusiasm was manifested at the meeting of those interested in the fair project at a recent meeting held at Beloit that surprised even the most active in the scheme. After the various phases of the question had been discussed and George Cram had reported that he had a contract whereby the association can purchase thirty acres of described land of W. H. Wheeler just across the state line in the town of Roscoe at a price which represents a handsome donation on Mr. Wheeler's part, three thousand dollars of the stock of the association was subscribed just as fast as the pledges could be written, and Mr. Cram was authorized to close the deal for the land. The tract lies at the very border of the city on the south, and is touched by Turtle creek, has numerous great shade trees, and the nature of the soil is such that a model racetrack can be constructed. The grounds can be entered from Park avenue and the road will lead to an entrance from the Roscoe and Rockton roads. Those who have inspected the land are delighted with it, and see in their mind's eye the finest fair grounds in the country. The entire lot will be fenced and the necessary buildings will be erected in time for a grand opening exhibition next fall. The building can be erected at a cost of $5,000. Stalls for 100 horses will be put up the first year.

The preliminary steps towards incorporation were taken. The society will be called the Beloit Inter-State Fair and Driving Association with a capital stock of $15,000. The Morgan stock farm led off the subscriptions, taking 50 shares of $10 each, and many others subscribed for lesser amounts. The subscription lists are in the hands of a committee and townsmen and farmers will be solicited to purchase stock. It is very desirable that farmers become stockholders. Mr. J. N. Chamberlain is chairman of the committee to secure subscriptions of farmers and he wishes to have the names of 500 farmers on the books. With the co-operation of farmers the fair will be a success. Among some of the farmers appointed to work among their own craft are L. S. Mosely, Geo. H. Crosby, Will Meyers, F. Coon, Wm. Smith, Will Lathers, Charles Lathers and A. C. Powers—Free Press.

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12.
Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

WINE OF CARDUI

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

Girl Assaulted by Woman.

New Castle, Ind., Oct. 20.—The community here is wrought up over a sensational encounter between Miss Pearl Massey, the daughter of a prominent druggist, and Mrs. William Denney, a violin teacher.

Miss Massey is one of her pupils. Both women are leaders in society. They met by chance in a local physician's office and Mrs. Denney, after charging the young woman with alienating her husband's affections, assaulted her viciously, tearing out large quantities of her hair and blackening her eyes.

Agricultural Loss in Texas.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—The statistician of the department of agriculture reports the result of investigation to determine the damage done Texas planters and farmers by the September hurricane. The area under cotton was approximately 1,300,000 acres, with a promise on Sept. 1 of a crop of about 640,000 bales. The reduction of the crop is estimated at about 68,000 bales, or 10.6 per cent. On a basis of $50 per bale, the amount destroyed would represent a value of $3,400,000. The area under corn is estimated to have been about $15,000 acres, with an indicated production of about 17,500,000 bushels. This loss to the crop is estimated at about 1,000,000 bushels, or 5.7 per cent, representing a value of about $500,000. The loss of rice is estimated at 73,000 barrels of four bushels each, representing a value of about $219,000. Of pecans, there is an estimated loss of 2,500,000 pounds, valued at $100,000. Three thousand trees, valued at $75,000, are also reported as destroyed. The loss of farm animals is estimated at 1,300 horses, 150 mules, 20,000 cattle, 2,300 sheep and 900 swine, representing a total value of about $490,000. Exclusive of the damages to farm buildings, machinery, etc., the total loss may be estimated at $5,000,000.

Lifeboat Proves Death-Trap.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 20.—Four and probably five persons met death by drowning in Golovin bay, off the town of Chenik, on Sept. 26, as the result of the capsizing of a lifeboat of the San Francisco steamer Albion. The known victims are: Gus Rudd, San Francisco; Joseph Gannish, David Clancy, Carpenter Wishard. Eighteen people entered the lifeboat to ride from Chenik to the Albion, which was a mile away. The boat was rigged with a sail. The wind was strong. Two hundred yards from the Albion the lifeboat capsized. The Albion's crew went to the rescue and saved all but four or five.

Every Claim is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants anything stronger than opinions and experiences of his neighbors, what can it be?

Mr. L. Lawrence, of 408 S. Franklin St., engineer at the Janesville Electric Light Co., says:

"Seven years ago I injured my back by falling through a bridge near Afton, into the Rock river. I was on a traction engine, its weight broke through, and the whole thing went into the stream. Since that time my back has ached by spells, sometimes very severely. If I caught cold it settled in my kidneys and if I brought a strain on my back lifting, the result was a bad backache and sharp twinges of pain in my loins. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and after I used them I was free from backache. I am in better health than at any time since falling through the bridge."

THE PROBLEM.

DOROTHY in the nursery can calculate the price of Ivory Soap per cake, but it would take a mathematical genius to calculate its true value. For he must take account of time, labor, and materials. He must deduct from the apparent cost the saving in the longer life of the cake, in the longer life of the washed fabric, in the labor required, in the time consumed, in the strength expended, in the results obtained. When all is finished, Ivory is the cheapest soap in the world. It floats.

Train Wreck in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 20.—The newly inaugurated Metropolitan underground railroad had its first disaster. Two trains were in collision and twenty-nine persons were injured, two of them fatally. The accident occurred between exposition station, on the Champs Elysees and the Place de la Concorde. A train entered the Place de la Concorde station, backed out again, and the train following, owing to a misunderstanding of signals, crashed into the rear carriage. Luckily both trains were going slowly. Nevertheless, the shock partially smashed the end of the car, shattering the windows of both trains and extinguishing the electric lights. There was great excitement, the darkness in the tunnel adding to the horror. Women screamed and wounded passengers appealed for help, while others loudly called for lights. The railroad employees hastened to the scene with lanterns and the passengers proceeded on foot to the Place de la Concorde station. The wounded were promptly removed to a hospital. Traffic was interrupted for several hours.

MR. BRYAN'S WARNING

"If there is anyone who believes that the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—Hon. William Jennings Bryan, Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 18, 1896.

THE TRUST ISSUE.

Governor Shaw defined the trust issue so clearly in his address at the opera house the other night that any unprejudiced mind would be compelled to admit that there was nothing in it.

He charged the democratic party with the responsibility of defeating trust legislation, and cited the fact that when congress had discovered that the national government had no authority to deal with individual states on the question, except by constitutional amendment, and that after a bill was framed in the house looking to such an amendment, that 130 democratic members voted against it.

This is the party that says now "Give us another chance and we will wipe out the trusts." The people have but little confidence in democratic party promises, and less faith in the ability of the party to successfully manage the affairs of government.

The four years of untrammelled experiment from 1892 to 1896 is all the country wants of that kind of law makers.

The present campaign is destitute of an issue. It lacks even the enthusiasm of a contest between the two great parties, as democracy is not represented. It is simply a fight against the administration by Bryan and his followers. The Bryanistic party is an aggregation of populists, disgruntled democrats and fanatical republicans.

The elevation of such a party to power would be a sad comment on the intelligence and common sense of a nation, and would mean financial ruin to the country. They will not be elevated this year.

HONESTY AND SUCCESS.

The fact is universally recognized that honesty is the foundation of character, and observation teaches that the men and women who succeed best in life are the people who are honest with themselves and honest with their fellows.

The man in business very soon discovers that it is good business policy to be honest, and in fact the financial world recognizes this trait in character, as capital.

The young man who starts out in life for himself with money, but lacking honesty, may soon discover that confidence cannot be purchased with gold and that a lack of confidence in the commercial world is frequently a greater loss than the lack of money. It is possible to recover the loss of money, but extremely difficult to regain lost confidence.

These facts are so evident that they do not admit of doubt, and they suggest to every young man and woman who stand at the threshold of active life peering with anxious gaze into a future that at best contains much of uncertainty, the importance of absolute honesty.

There is another question connected with honesty that is frequently a stumbling block to young people, and older people as well, and that is, why do so many honest people make a failure of life. If honesty is the foundation of character and character is so essential to success, why don't all honest people succeed.

If honesty was the only ingredient of character the question would be extremely difficult to solve, but observation teaches that there are other elements of vital importance to a successful career.

A man may be honest and very lazy, he may be honest and very visionary. He may be putting honest and faithful work into a calling for which he has no adaptability. The boy who has no mechanical genius or the girl who possesses no musical talent are both handicapped in the work of life if attempting to work out a destiny unaided by natural endowment. The failures of life are largely due to this cause and the best work a parent or teacher ever does for a child is directing its activities and planning its future with reference to genius and adaptability. The professions and the trades are crowded with men and women who work hard and struggle for existence because they are attempting to do something that nature never intended they should do. Happy the boy or girl who has some friend who is wise enough to direct their ambitions in the right channel early in life.

BOB LA FOLLETTE WAKES UP ST. PAUL

Speaks to a Vast Throng Last Night—Great Torchlight Procession in His Honor.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 20.—Robert M. La Follette addressed an audience of 10,000 in the auditorium in this city last evening. The meeting was preceded by a grand torch light procession in which 3,000 men lined up with torches and flags.

In the huge line of fire that wound its way over the hilly topography of Minnesota's capital like a huge fiery serpent rode La Follette as guest of honor.

It was ten o'clock when F. C. Stevens introduced Mr. La Follette as the statesman with the national reputation and the man who was to be the next governor of Wisconsin. As Mr. La Follette stepped forward, 10,000 people arose and gave him a perfect ovation.

Mr. La Follette was in splendid voice, considering the work of the day and he awoke the people of St. Paul as they have not been awakened during the present campaign. During his speech he made a motion to loosen his collar and was met with cries "take off your coat." Taking up the pending issues he treated them fully and conclusively as he treated them in Milwaukee before the campaign.

Flora Miller Convicted.

Wapakoneta, O., Oct. 20.—Flora R. Miller, who was charged with the killing of her three-year-old stepson, Leroy, on July 2, last, was found guilty of manslaughter yesterday. On July 2, Mrs. Miller, in a fit of madness, seized her stepson by the throat and choked him to death. A plea of insanity was interposed requiring four days of testimony and the examining of 125 witnesses.

Pouch with $7,000 Gone.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 20.—A sealed pouch, said to contain $7,000, disappeared while en route from the local office of the America Express company to the union depot. An attempt has been made to keep the matter secret, but Driver Sobey and the local cashier resigned after General Manager Naylor of Chicago had investigated the affair.

POLITICAL TRICKSTERS.

It Seems They Are the Kind of People That Bryan Prefers to Side With.

In recent struggles within local sections of the democratic party between the "better element" and the disreputable element, Bryan has chosen every time to side with the disreputable element.

Bryan personally took the stump for Goebel in Kentucky, despite the advice and warnings of the best democrats of the state, who had put up Brown for governor, as a protest against the crimes against free government and political decency that Goebelin notoriously meant.

Bryan has given official recognition to the boodle Clark wing of the democracy in Montana. An "entangling alliance" with the man who corrupted the Montana legislature and some state judges in order to get a seat in the senate, does not seem to worry his conscience one whit, so long as the alliance means $200,000 contribution to his own campaign fund.

In New York the official recognition given by Bryan to Croker as against Hill, was the chief means whereby that notorious Tammany Hall boss, who lives in England on New York political plunder, defeated Coler for the nomination for governor—though Coler was the man whom the best democrats of New York wanted nominated. Croker opposed Coler because he opposed Tammany's attempts to secure plunder and pelf from taxpayers. This victory for Croker, won by brutal imperialism, aided by the recognition from Bryan, the New York Evening Post (Ind.) has described as the "victory of cash over principle, of matter over mind." The decent democratic press of New York has since been bitterly complaining of the fact that Bryan is the first democratic presidential candidate who has ever so personally humiliated himself as to give recognition to Croker.

WE'VE HAD ENOUGH OF YOU.

Oh, Billy Bryan! We've had enough of you. You said four years ago what wasn't true. Every voter knows, in the country near and far, your prognostications from the tail end of a car. So keep up your spouting, and say all you can. But remember it's not Bryan, but McKinley's our man. For what McKinley said has all come true. The country it is prosperous and we don't want you.

CITIZENS' BANK AT CLINTON ROBBED

Secure a Box of Pennies and Nickles for Their Trouble.

USE NITRO-GLYCERINE

Scared Away Before They Could Enter Inside of the Vault.

THREE SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Bank robbers made an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Citizens' Bank at Clinton last evening. They were evidently frightened away before completing the job and secured a box of pennies and one of nickles for their trouble.

The robbers gained an entrance to the bank by the way of the side door and when once inside proceeded to business. They forced the outside door of the vault loose without the use of explosives but used nitro glycerine on the inside doors which were of solid steel. The inside doors were badly wrecked and broken.

The robbers had made all preparations for blowing the safe, which is inside the vault, but evidently were frightened away before they got to work on it.

Nothing was known of the robbery until the assistant cashier entered the bank building about eight o'clock this morning. He noticed that the room looked dirty with numerous burnt matches scattered around the floor. He next saw that the vault door was not closed and saw at once that an attempt had been made to rob the bank. He telephoned at once to H. A. Mohlenpach, the cashier of the institution, who came down from his home as soon as he was notified. He and the assistant cashier made a careful search and outside of the doors to the vault being ruined and a box each of pennies and nickles being taken they could discover no other loss.

A kit of burglar's tools was found in the railroad yards during the morning and Three suspicious characters hanging around the town were arrested and locked up by the marshal.

Sheriff Appleby was notified about eleven o'clock and left immediately for the scene of the robbery.

The Citizens' Bank is a state bank and the only one in Clinton. The officers are C. P. Drake, president; H. A. Mohlenpach, cashier and S. W. Heron, assistant cashier.

The bank is fully secured against loss by robbers by a policy in the Bankers' Casualty Insurance company, of Des Moines.

LOCAL ART LEAGUE WELL ENTERTAINED

Lecture by Mrs. Herman J. Hall in the Sunday School Room of the Congregational Church.

The Janesville Art League and their invited guests were handsomely entertained yesterday afternoon with a lecture by Mrs. Herman J. Hall, chairman of the general federation of woman's clubs.

Mrs. Hall is a philanthropist of the truest type and never takes any compensation for her services.

The Sunday school room of the congregational church was filled with representative women of the city who thoroughly appreciated the afternoon entertainment.

Mrs. A. E. Tanberg, president of the Janesville Art League, presided. The afternoon exercises opened with a vocal solo by Mrs. Christine Hawley, which was beautifully rendered. Mrs. W. T. Shearer played the accompaniment in a faultless manner. Mrs. Hall took for her subject the Paris Exposition and gave them glimpses of detail from an artistic standpoint. The Grand Palace where the work of American sculptors was prominent would be of the most interest to the Art League. The most wonderful thing in the building was the retrospective exhibit of the art of France. This is one of the unique features of the fair.

The street of nations contained many permanent buildings finer than this country ever had and far ahead of the foreign buildings at the Chicago fair. The foreign exhibits were Chicago.

The Italian building was too composite, but contained a fine exhibit. The Turkish exhibit was spoiled by having things sold by those in charge. The Finland building was a picture of exquisite painting and carving. In every building was a restaurant and the comfort of the visitor was always provided for. In these restaurants different national dishes could be obtained by the curious.

One of the most pleasing sights was the contrast between the streets of old Paris and the Paris of today.

The Americans can learn a lesson from the French who are like children, happy over nothing.

After the lecture was over the ladies of the Art League served tea and wafers which were enjoyed by those present.

NEWS FROM INDIANA.

Janesville Man Thinks That the State Will Go Republican.

A gentleman prominent in Janesville business circles has just returned from Indiana. While there he visited a number of cities where large corporations are located and where previous to a trip Bryan made through the state the general feeling was favorable to the election of Bryan, in fact it is stated if the election was held September 1st instead of November 6th the state would have given Bryan a large majority. This feeling was entirely before Bryan made his tour of the state. Since then in every place visited the change is marked; nothing is heard of McKinley and Roosevelt, and without doubt the republicans will sweep the state at the coming election.

INCENDIARY FIRE IN MILTON TOWN

Tobacco Shed of William Oates With Seven Acres of Tobacco Was Burned Last Night.

Milton, Oct. 20.—At 7:10 last night an alarm of fire was turned in and in ten minutes the large tobacco shed of Wm. Oates with its seven acres of tobacco was a mass of flames.

The barn and house of Geo. S. Babcock near the shed was on fire several times and nothing but the good work of the bucket brigade and the fire department saved Mr. Babcock's property from destruction. The fire was the work of an incendiary without a shadow of doubt and no expense should be spared in bringing the firebug to justice.

This is the second shed that Mr. Oates has lost by fire this fall and indicates that some malignant enemy of Oates' is at work or that some person has a mania for destroying property. The shed and contents were insured for $1,000 and the loss is estimated at $1,500 to $1,600.

The tracks of a man leading to the end of the shed where the fire broke out and from it toward a building not far away were found the latter showing that the person was running. Mr. Oates offers a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the guilty person.

HURT IN STREET-CAR WRECK.

Injuries to Thirteen Persons at Indianapolis.

RUN DOWN BY SWITCH ENGINE.

Passengers Are Pinned by the Broken Timbers—Conductor Sent Ahead to See if Track Is Clear Fails to Act in Time.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 20.—A Lake Erie switch engine crashed into a street car at Thirteenth street, injuring thirteen of the twenty-one passengers, four of whom may die. Those who were injured are: Arthur Staats, Jefferson avenue, may die; Eaton Barnes, No. 359 Virginia avenue, may die; Hattie Gurley, Sadie Weeks, No. 449 Madison avenue, may die; Mrs. Prudence Campbell, No. 406 North West street; Miss Mamie Campbell, No. 406 North West street; Bert Baldwin, No. 232 East St. Joseph street, may die; Dr. E. B. Brigham, No. 1110 East Tenth street; Atlas Moore, No. 23 South Oriental street; Henry Strieby, No. 1323 Temple street; Emanuel Confield, No. 716 Madison avenue; Charles Barnes, No. 406 East Michigan street; H. P. Brunaugh. The engine struck the front end of the car, smashing it to kindling wood and carrying it for twenty feet, finally throwing it against a freight car standing on a side track. The passengers, many of whom were in the wrecked end of the car, were pinned by the broken and twisted timbers. The doors could not be opened and the uninjured persons in their mad rush to escape trampled over those unable to help themselves. To add to the general confusion the steam from the engine enveloped the wrecked car and it was with great difficulty the work of rescue was accomplished. Half the passengers were women, and their screams and the crash awoke people living within two blocks of the scene of the accident. The wrecked car was returning from Brightwood, and had on board a number of people who had been attending a Republican meeting. When the tracks were reached the conductor, Harry Kraus, went ahead as usual to see that the road was clear. A Monon engine going north passed the crossing, drowning the noise made by the Lake Erie engine. He was unable to see the engine till too late. He yelled to the motorman, and four or five passengers on the rear platform jumped to safety.
